

Letter Seven: Scapegoat Copeland

“The Great Deception”

September 21, 2024

YAHWEH SAYS THIS:

He may state the phrase “Jesus is Lord,” but he trains the people to view him as a god. The problem with Copeland: I have a covenant with him but not with any of his family.

I call it a problem with Copeland because I do have an actual covenant with him. Covenants cannot be broken under Yahweh’s order, but I can move a covenant to another who would walk in the statutes that Yahweh has. I cannot remove him because of what I imparted from the early days. But I end the way of the influencing from his outlets when he is dead and in the death way.

What did Yahweh do with Copeland? We came under a covenant to win a great soul winning. He said he would stay with Me in how he presented the written Word. He went into the snake pit and took up human covenants with worldly church leaders who didn’t lay Yahweh in the position of first place. These humans gave him indoctrination into how they gained great wealth, and Kenneth took that as a way to never be without. I can give great provision, great protection, and great Kingdom power to an honest laborer. I do not need you to fidget with the way of the Gospel message, making it say something you think would be more appealing.

I gave Kenneth a covenant, joined in working in My fields, bringing souls into the Kingdom. But there was a turning within him. The wealth of others gained from the prosperity sayings made him crave that way of life. The driving hope of gaining great wealth fueled Kenneth. His way of yielding an attractive way of giving was to make the people think they would be able to carry similar wealth if they gave.

Kenneth made himself the way of hope by claiming that if they gave into his work or to Kenneth, those who would give would be sealed (or guaranteed) to drink the wealth way. The people believed him. But why? Kenneth's covenant with Yahweh surges through the work, and people do drink. But just because there is a ministry covenant with Yahweh doesn't mean that Yahweh stands with them in salvation. Covenants come based on getting a work task completed. Did Solomon honor Me throughout his reign? Solomon heavily sinned against Me, but the covenant did not leave him but was stripped from one kingdom into two main territories, outlets of two kingdoms, when he entered the death way.

Just because Kenneth's family is taking on leadership ways doesn't mean We have to continue the covenant. Copeland grew a great work but with a great deceptive strand weaved in from the root. Look how Yahweh says there must be no other lowercase gods before Me, yet Kenneth tells the people that he is also going to speak of himself carrying I AM's name. What would be the penalty for leading people away to worship other gods? What would be the penalty for saying lies in My name, calling yourself by the name only reserved for Me?

What should take way if grace is removed? I would barely breathe out a sigh and strip the air from him. I would send him down into the pit where he would await the horror of standing before Me and hearing Me say, "You have no place in My Book of Life." How scary should that sound? Terrifying. The grace that covers the Church age makes people look at Yahweh as their little human friend who they can bark orders to. But Yahweh is I AM. Yahweh is the only One who creates from speaking His will. Yahweh is the only One who can kill both body and soul through a permanent separation from My presence. Only Yahweh gives life. No human can make Yahweh do how their way moves.

Kenneth, you were a great deception. You were the distraction that kept the people from looking to Me. You made them think they needed you to be a mediator, that if they gave you wealth, you would help them. You were their place of meeting, making it appear that unless they had a covenant with you, they would be without. You put yourself in the place where Yahweh should be. You teach them to walk against Yahweh and say they can do what they please within Yahweh's way of territory.

The way of having no gods before Yahweh has been broken within your outlets. You spit on Yahweh, lowering Him to the way of a butler who answers your church doors. Are you seeing it? A standing covenant with the Great I AM from the early days was never stripped from your way. And you think you have fellowship through being connected to the Great King Jesus. You cannot have your way as a lowercase god and think we have a real fellowship.

Your days will end when Yahweh says, but this day, I plan to begin to take the veil from the eyes of those who connect with your work. Unrest. Torture from demons. But I will complete My stripping by leaving, by removing My presence. And when the breath leaves, your body lays cold, and your soul goes to where Yahweh sends you, there will be a break within the work. I will not back them.

I only have a covenant with your way. What will remain? A den of demons. Those who drink will take in a taste, but I will call for them to wake out of their placing. They wanted the covenant with Yahweh. They will see a new way when Yahweh transfers this covenant. Watch how Yahweh brings you a death sentence in the work. That plan means I will look for others who will not bow to Satan by making their way a lowercase god.
