

GOD CARED ENOUGH TO SEND AN ANGEL

I remember what would make some people laugh at me, but it doesn't make it any less meaningful. One day years ago, I was feeling unloved and unwanted. You have to know that the root of those feelings was in my soul from a painful marriage in the old way. This detail is only shared to strengthen any who deals with other problems or painful feelings.

I heard the Great Way shift His plans once more, and it was to move in doing a detail the servant wasn't fully ready to deal with. People think they will handle anything, but when it is time to face it, the pain within will surface if there is any hidden detail not healed in the power of King Jesus. I wept in great water flowing from within me as I tried to figure out what God was doing now in His planning. With so many changes He had given me, it seemed as if the One who spoke with me wasn't sure of what He wanted.

As I pondered and fought hard against my own way so I would follow God with a full surrender, the Great King gave me a vision of what He moved in bringing with me in that moment of deep painful dealings: An angel was with me in the bedroom where I laid on my bed and wept. The angel did not keep a distance but moved in closer to me and began giving comfort with a gentle touch that brought me into peaceful dealings within. He had his hand over my head and had a way to release Yahweh's peace and comfort needed to give me the strength to fight another day.

I will always be grateful to my dear Great King Jesus for sending an angel to heal me with the power given at the Great Way's will.

I love You, King Jesus. Thank You for caring about me on the good days and the bad days.
