

CAN YOU FEEL MY PRESENCE?

Yahweh is speaking.

YAHWEH IS LEADING:

How do I break it down for the general public to understand, servant?

Yes, leave that sentence by itself. It is a pondering thought, for I know how to say My will. How do I say it? Is it possible to feel Yahweh? Isn't God everywhere? Yahweh can see everything. I record everything, and I know all. But what is referenced by the question, "Can you feel My presence?"

What is meant by the ability to feel Yahweh? How is it possible to express feeling the unseen realm? Is Yahweh's presence made manifest with feeling goosebumps on the skin? Is there a feeling of warmth? Is Yahweh's presence felt as a heavy weight upon a person's spirit? Does saying those statements bring any clarity? No. Let's give a well-presented answer to the question, servant.

I will answer it by saying it this way. There are natural ways that people feel a person looking at their way. Some people know when someone is watching them, even from across the street or away in another room that connects. Some people look out of the corner of their eye and can tell someone is looking towards their way. They feel a human person has their gaze centered on their way. A feeling of awkwardness may come upon them if they are uncomfortable being looked at. Or someone may sit in front of you, looking right at you. You gain an awareness that they are looking at you. You're in this place of being viewed.

In Yahweh's way of viewing someone, there is a moment in that space of time when you have an awareness that Yahweh is with you, and with a nearness feeling, a confirmation fills your spirit, and you can tell My gaze is towards your way. And for some, that acknowledgment that Yahweh is there may manifest as an outward sensation, such as a warm feeling of being surrounded. For some, when Yahweh is dealing with His prophets, Yahweh may put a heavy weight upon them where the need to take care of specific duties weighs upon them, and Yahweh will not release that weight of urgency until the task is done. They feel Yahweh pushing a weight on them, an urgent feeling, unrest, or even torment by taking sleep away from the prophet until they heed Me.

Yahweh is everywhere. Yahweh can see the day and activities at night without any hindering placings. Yahweh sees what goes on in the Hell at this very moment. And I will view all who are thrown into the lake of fire for all eternity. Yahweh is aware of all that goes on. And sometimes I prompt. The Great Holy Spirit woos you, and He will also bring to your remembrance what Yahweh's will is. But the Great Holy Spirit is more than what people reduce Him to, for Yahweh Great Holy Spirit is a Member of the Godhead (Trinity). The Great Holy Spirit draws you, and you will become aware of when He is there at various moments. And yet, the Great Holy Spirit dwells within every believer.

Here is the problem, though. Some people are just very emotional, going through a hard season, or need to feel loved. Some people are moved (in their feelings) by the church worship service and would gauge how Yahweh deals with them based on the room lighting and the song played. Yahweh's presence doesn't manifest based on emotions, but I will comfort you. I can be invoked. I can hear you pray to Yahweh, and I will hear you by visiting. But I will not give special treatment to make you feel ready to go to Heaven.

Don't get caught up in the music or the hardship you face. Even with the reverse, don't think that if there is a happy day or there's that feeling that all is going well would mean that you are in right standing with Me, Yahweh. Let Me draw you by My Spirit first and, most importantly, through reading the written Word.

When some people walk into a room, they can discern the spiritual atmosphere or environment, sensing what spirits move forward. Sensing the spiritual environment and the spirits that inhabit it is possible. But any engagement with the spirit realm using the gift of Discerning of Spirits must be initiated and led by the Great Holy Spirit. The Great Holy Spirit distributes His gifts as He wills. Some people can tell when an angel or demon walks into a room. Do not gauge your spiritual walk with Yahweh by how well you sense the unseen realm. Stand firm in Yahweh's written Word, using that as your foundation to gauge everything else so that when any spirit appears and speaks, you will know who they stand with.

Wait upon Yahweh. Worship Yahweh in spirit and in truth. Show Me that you love Me by obeying My written will; I will build upon that.

Now, for the charismatics, prophets, and seers:

Let Me make it clear that you can tend to believe Yahweh would back any perceived idea or plan that gives the appearance of a "move of the Spirit." From the written Word should be where you base your foundation. Can Yahweh slay someone and have them lay limp? If Yahweh wants to. But that slaying in the Spirit does not prove that Yahweh backs up the ones who move in this plan. If someone blows on your flesh and you fall backward, it does not prove that the person is a true man or woman of God. If there is a lot of laughter and people act up and say they are drunk, take a moment to gauge what the doctrine is that they preach, the basis for why they say Yahweh deals with them in this manner. The doctrine must line up with what is written IN CONTEXT.

Yahweh will never go outside of Scripture and make a new plan that is an add-on to what is really the move of Yahweh by saying a contrary statement that is in rebellion against the written Word. Yet Yahweh can still choose to give His will in various formats to confirm your spiritual walk. But remember that people can say the "right words" yet live an evil way. Waiting on Yahweh and following My will are the most critical details to ensure that you stay in My will.

But here is a major problem: a lot of the charismatics take Scriptures out of context to back up what they want it to say by putting their own person of choice from Scripture as a copy of their own personal plight they deal with. You must stand firm in saying, "It is okay when Yahweh does not give me an awareness of Him being near me. Based on Yahweh saying that He will help me get through this, I know He really will. I trust what Yahweh says in His written Word, and I will rely on the Great Holy Spirit to illuminate the Word of God as if Yahweh spoke it today. My confidence in how I live for Yahweh is not based on how many spiritual treats Yahweh gives. (Yes, spiritual treats can help novice prophets endure.) I trust Yahweh, and His written Word will not pass away based on how the culture chooses to live."

For the hungry one:

The servant who writes My will used to crave Yahweh in a way where she begged for Me to reveal Myself to her, not knowing that that was a dangerous seeking. Most people do not know that I can be dangerous to be around, for they are used to the way grace covers their way. But I am the same Yahweh of old. My presence and power are just as potent. Coming into My potent presence with irreverent actions can bring instant death. I want you to seek after Me because of our relationship, how you can have a new way with clean hands, a pure heart, and eternal life. Isn't that worth so much more? Knowing that you can be with Me throughout eternity should resonate within you. You will be with Me forever if you are connected to Me.
