

PROPHECY THROUGH WOMEN

SERVANT SEERSGATE SAYS IT:

Women can give a prophetic message. In the way of order, women can say whatever Yahweh states to give. The only bar against a woman is solely from how the woman was placed under Paul's way, moving in a congruent manner with a curse spoken by Yahweh. But Kingdom order yields no curse, for before the fall, Eve did not have the curse of being placed under the husband or male governing. And since Yahweh will not stifle any prophetic plan and shut down giving His will, there must be an understanding that Yahweh can "break away" from the implemented structure set up from a curse to have Kingdom order rule over an era by yielding a word through both genders.
