

DRUG DEMON

SEERSGATE SAYS:

I have smelled a drug demon. It is not a way to exaggerate, for the drug has a certain smell that cannot be erased from memory. This demon was in my house in Houston. I specify for I have lived in many places. The plan is to show that demons can have a ruling plan in a person or even in a building. There cannot be any special treatment. And a demon will not care what the host looks like, for it only wants to bring full destruction, bringing that person, place, or thing, fully under Satan's way of territorial rule.

How does a drug demon smell? The one that I dealt with was a marijuana demon. I have smelt marijuana on others who have walked by me. I would ask a person walking with me if they could smell that drug, and they would not have the ability to do so. When it first started where I was able to discern spirits, there was a way to think it was a natural smell; yet others were not able to smell that spirit.

The drug is a very strong-smelling drug. And any person who smells it would be able to discern it in natural settings. I would meet a person, and they would smell nice—as if they just took a shower and wear body fragrance. Then God would open up my spiritual senses to tell what the Great Way actually smells instead. It would sometimes shock me to taste it so deeply when in the natural presentation, the person looks so well-placed in order.

The drug demon is easy to pick up if the Great King wills a moving for you to discern this plan that would be able to set others free. For example, let's say a person has taken drugs and now serves the Great Way. There may be true salvation, yet that person's soul may be under the bondage of addiction. Some who have done drugs are not addicted, yet there is a lingering past that may need to be broken off. Others will swap demons just based on sexual engagement with another who has a drug demon. Then that person would have to still be set free based on spiritual connection.

Sex can bring you a demon you were not expecting. Satan uses sex to fill many with a training way of dealing with demons that would bring that host into submission. Let's look at the young way: People want to have sexual encounters just to fit in, but they don't see it, where these spiritual, sexual encounters will have the person filling up with whatever is the ruling way.

Spiritual doors have been opened to let the enemy in. A person tries a drug just once and ends up "hooked," unable to break the connection. Is it all about willing yourself into going "cold turkey" with no more drugs? Can any be truly set free, fully, with good behavior? Ask yourself this: What is greater than any? God's Spirit is more than a "what." He has a true spirit way but also is a greater way than any human or angel.

God's Spirit is God and can set any person free from any addiction. But ask this new plan: Is there a true longing to be set free, or do I really want to have this "freeing" plan to always need it? This is major in a deliverance setting: Does the person actually want to be set free? It's a "free will" question, where every human under bondage will surely have to make a choice as to which way they will turn when longing to regain true freedom in God's Kingdom.

You may have a drug demon of any kind, but God can still bring you a will and have you in His Kingdom. But why choose to be under bondage and oppression? His power will have a freedom that will not be matched by any drug. I will say that when I first returned to serving God, I thought it was truly hard. It seemed as if I would never fully be His. Satan will have you live in a "freedom" that is in a cage of bondage.

After seeing it, I started to trust God to know what would be better for my health—natural and spiritual. I started to want a true relationship that was not based on performance. And with each day, I released what I thought would be the best will and followed King Jesus, after what plan He would say. It did not always make sense. Sometimes I was angry with God. Other times, I chose to stay a certain way. Yet with each stage, God stayed with me, constant in His level of love.

My way hopes that you would see it—that even if you deal with a drug demon, you can still be set free. If you sell drugs, I will say you still can feel me speaking to you. I am willing to accept you. If a human will forgive you, what greater plan will that be with your Heavenly Father, who waits there for you to come and drink eternal life and true freedom in His Son King Jesus? Drugs may contain natural ingredients yet will be able to have a bondage way if the plan is fully natured in Satan's snare.

YAHWEH, KING OF THE UNIVERSE, GIVES A WAY TO SEE THE WAY THAT IS UNDER KINGDOM LIVING. YAHWEH SAYS—

I am making a great deal clear. Drugs, referring to the product that hinders, will not be given My seal of approval. How can it be in My will to have Christians high on drugs and feeding their fleshly way, and then have them try and minister healing and deliverance into others? What hypocrisy should be allowed? None.

I will not give a continual surging of power and a covenant connection to others who are claiming to be Christians but allow the flesh to consume them and bring them under deep bondage and other harmful hindrances that cut off the power surging and Kingdom purpose under Yahweh.

I am not a God who gives grace a plan that allows humans to spit all over My Kingdom power. You can enter Heaven with many hindrances, yet there must be a covenant under Yahweh. For example, a person may enter My Kingdom salvation as a true child of God and will allow My powerful Spirit to change them and set them free from various addictions, curses, and bondage. At the same time, I cannot stop that same child of God from going back to living a sinful life and dabbling in sinful ways.

I am a God of a just ruling, and I weigh the heart. I look for a pure heart. I look for those who want to stop dabbling under Satan's snares and will willingly yield to being Mine. You can take pharmaceutical drugs and commit suicide with that drug that was meant to help. You can dabble in any other form of bondage and still think you are going to be Mine forever. But what is the way? Through a covenant relationship with Yahweh. It is not based on what the nation says is legal. I am not governed by the local plan of human votes.

I am the God of all flesh, for I AM. I know that harmful drugs are granted as forms of healing, but will it bring covenant under Kingdom order? God's Spirit has to rule, not your flesh. And God is not entertaining doorways that will bring bondage and cause a person more heartache when the full consuming plan comes under destructive ways.

You say, "I am allowed to do anything"—but not everything is good for you. And even though "I am allowed to do anything," I must not become a slave to anything.
