

DOUBT AND FEAR

Cave Training, Kodiak, Alaska

STAGE TWO / ENTRY THREE

Yesterday's training was the most profound demon interaction I have been given in the training this season. The demons carrying the natures of doubt and fear were strong in the first phase of the day. My thoughts were against Yahweh's will, and I was sure to break due to this battle against me. Demons may not be heard or seen, yet they will move to influence you in how you commune with Yahweh. I've craved to drink the will of the Great King, where Yahweh Great Holy Spirit would have a strong person under His covering.

In my daily living, I chose to serve the Great King Jesus in all details, yet under this influence of battle ways of seeing and hearing, the worst-case scenarios came forward, and I began to break. I called out to the Great Holy Spirit to reveal what I was spiritually drinking from these outside training ways. One moment, I was able to stand firm in Yahweh's plan. Then, the next, there was a great division within due to various questions that I couldn't answer in the way given by the Great Holy Spirit. I started to doubt Yahweh because I didn't have all the answers. Yahweh did not make His plan fully clear, and so I doubted.

There were many demons throughout the day compared to previous demon interactions. Later, while working at my desk, my thoughts would dwell on different details. My ways of thinking shifted from sexual overtones to doubt and previous painful details. These ways of thinking were intensely moving to bring me deep interaction with the demons at the exact moment. My body, my will within, was screaming for relief. I couldn't figure out the motive for the level of demon interaction.

When there was such a tremendous spiritual weight against me, I could only have the strength to speak and call out to the Great Holy Spirit to help me. I didn't know what to pray. I didn't know which demonic spirit came against me, yet as soon as I called out to the Great Holy Spirit to deliver me, He made His presence tangible, where I could deeply drink Him to receive strength within.

There was a moment when Yahweh enabled me to see many demons around me in the spirit realm, moving to influence me. This observation was what I was taking from the demon interaction: It was a deep engagement to test me to see if this servant was ready for the next stage, which is to see and engage the spirit realm as if it materialized. I would drink this new way by the leading of the Great Holy Spirit.

Wouldn't it be better to know the Great Holy Spirit's will in each detail so you would move in victorious ways against a demon that would move against you? No believer is exempt from demon influence. You must know what the Great Holy Spirit would have you do in each detail. He can see both the natural and the unseen ways at all times. You will endure as you renounce the old ways of sin that would bring the enemy areas to use against you.

How will you know when the devil will move to do his will to hurt you or those you love? The plan is given as you seek Yahweh and have Him guide you. Stay close to the Great King Jesus. Drink Yahweh's way to live. Stand close to the Great Holy Spirit in communion. Yahweh is with you even at this moment.
