

HOW TO BREAK A SOUL TIE

How would a person date and “end it,” thinking that no plan stands to still be under a spiritual connection with that person due to breaking up? Breaking up will not end the way you joined with the person in spiritual ways. I have slept with those I’ve dated and noticed that I would still think of the former way. I felt that our breaking up would end that connection. But God has shown me that what must manifest is a soul break, where I would break that connection with that person by saying a prayer into the spirit realm that would break all bonds with that person.

Objects can also bring dangerous connections. Rid your place of all gifts of value from old relationships. Friends can also join with you in a soul tie, where they will make a vow to a person, under soulish joinings. Do not participate in blood joinings; these are spiritually dangerous. Those who participate in a blood joining with strangers must also have Yahweh break off the former joining. Extra persons in your marriage bed (threesomes, foursomes, or affairs) must be dealt with. Yahweh would have to deliver your way from sexual soul ties and transferring demons among each other. Giving of yourself in emotional joinings with coworkers can weaken your marriage.

Look at how you lived in old relationships, friendships, and work situations. Are there any on your mental list who connect to you in spirit? How can you know it? Your heart may have left. Your body may live in another state or nation, yet you still crave the former way with continual mental distraction and longing. What about ex-spouses? Deal with old connections by cutting the old way loose. Stop reminiscing about what you once had. Ask Yahweh to help you break free from the painful way of dwelling on the past and living in agreement to keep what is not yours with His great delivering plan through King Jesus. To legally break off the former way is good, but make sure your spiritual placement is pleasing to Yahweh.

First, make sure you stand in a Kingdom citizen way with Yahweh. You must repent of any past sin and seek Yahweh. Now is the time to break the old way from you, never bringing it back into your spirit. Here is a prayer to break soulish ties, blood covenants, and former spiritual and natural joinings.

THE PRAYER TO BREAK A SOUL TIE

Dear Father, I am seeking my delivering outlet in Your Son, King Jesus. His blood can cleanse me from all sin. Father, I need cleansing in the blood of King Jesus. Forgive me for all my sins. Forgive me for connecting, without Your blessing, to these details that will hinder my relationship with the one who is in a current relationship with me. I now renounce all witchcraft, all soulish bondage, all former lovers, all blood ties, and all dealings in Satan's nature. Now, I come in the name of King Jesus, and at this moment, I am a new creation. Father, please break off every weight in the old and give me a new vision, a Kingdom perception. In the name of King Jesus, I am now speaking to my body: You will release every spirit that is not from God's way. I cut, sever, and break off all soulish ties in all ungodly joinings. Father, please send them where You choose. King Jesus, I am Your servant. I am Yours by salvation in You. I am ready to yield in how I live, and I ask You to remove all natural and spiritual joinings that would take You out of Your rightful position in my heart. Dear King Jesus, please seal any spiritual doorway that should no longer hinder. Please let me live a deeper joining without the added cares of the world choking my heart. Please bring me into deep, filling ways in Your Spirit. Great Way, thank You for always caring and listening. Now, I live free from the old way. I ask for Your help removing old sentimental objects I wear and keep in my home, car, and office space. Now, I will bow and never sin with that person, for that will open that doorway again and cause significant harm to our relationship. Thank You for Your wisdom, grace, and incredible power. Amen. Amen. Amen.
